INSTRUCTIONS — INFORMATION

Please Read Before Ordering

REMITTANCES — May be made by Check, Post Office or Express Money Order, or Registered Letter, and if for less than $1.00 can be made in U. S. stamps. Coin and currency should be sent by registered letter. Customers residing outside the United States please do not send Foreign stamps or currency—a Post Office order is preferable. All unpaid orders will be sent C. O. D. unless satisfactory arrangements can be made when the order is given.

GUARANTEE — I wish it distinctly understood that although I take all possible pains, I will not be responsible beyond the purchase price. I guarantee every root and plant I send out to be just as represented, absolutely true-to-name, reach its destination safely in good growing condition. I will cheerfully replace anything that fails to prove otherwise, and will appreciate your calling my attention to it.

NAME AND ADDRESS — Please remember to write your name, street and number, Post Office, County, State and Country if Foreign, as plainly as possible. Post Office Box or R. F. D. number if you have one. This will avoid delays and chances for errors.

ALWAYS ADDRESS

THE CULTURE OF THE DAHLIA

Success Will Follow if You Observe These Instructions

PLANTING. Plant roots in hills or drills, laying flat down, 6 inches deep. Do not stand the root on end. If you stand the root on end, having the sprout near the top of the ground, all the new roots which will form will grow near the top of the ground and when you have a dry spell your plant becomes stunted, whereas, if the roots were planted flat down 6 inches deep, no matter how dry the season, the roots would receive sufficient moisture to keep them growing. If planting with manure, cover manure an inch or so before planting roots; fertilizer should be thoroughly worked into the soil. Either fertilizer or manure will burn the sprout; be sure to cover with soil.

By planting the root first, then covering an inch or so with soil and applying your fertilizer or manure, your plant receives the entire benefit of the dressing. The dressing is above the root and every rain carries the food down to the roots, whereas, if your dressing is below the root, each rain takes your dressing further away from your plant.

CULTIVATION. Cultivation is the principal requirement of the Dahlia—the most important of all operations to insure success. Keep the soil well cultivated and free from weeds; never allow the soil to crust.

Be sure your friends get all my catalogs, as I guarantee all my stock to grow true to name, or stock is cheerfully replaced free of all expense.

I have been in the Dahlia and Plant growing business for over 48 years and at one time had over 40,000 customers and have shipped bulbs all over the world.

I shall only issue a folder this Spring on account of hard times, so send all orders from this. If interested in Hardy Plants, I will send you my 1933 Catalog for prices will be the same as last year.

NEW INTRODUCTIONS FOR 1934

MANOMET. One of the best Cactus Dahlias that I have had the pleasure of growing. It is a very beautiful orange spotted darker, very large, going to twelve inches, and grows four canes. The flowers are held on good long stems well above the foliage. It is a very fine keeper as I have had it in vases five days without changing water. $10.00 each.

PRES. FRANKLIN DELANO ROOSEVELT. This is a formal Decorative that has a certificate of merit from Storr's. A Chinese red with fawn edge and cream reverse, making the blooms very striking. The flowers are very large and deep, going eight inches without disbudding and holds its size all season. The blooms are held well above the foliage on good stiff stems. It is a profuse bloomer and should be disbudded, and it can be grown then to eight canes without reducing the flowers to less than nine to ten inches. The foliage is perfect. Insects do not like it. $10.00 each.

RIPPLES. This is an informal Decorative. A very large flower of eight inches without disbudding. The rose-pink colored blooms are held on very long stems way above the foliage. It is a great bloomer and has fine foliage. I have a large stock of this so will let it go for $5.00 each. A bargain.

GLADIOLI

The Gladioli are without an equal either for bedding or borders. As a cut flower they are far superior to any other Summer bloomer, either for lasting qualities or for the various uses for which they can be employed. If planted by the last of May, they will bloom by the first to the middle of August, if cared for properly.

The way to Plant—Dig the row or bed from eight to ten inches deep, then spread a liberal amount of good fertilizer in the bottom of the row or bed, then rake it in thoroughly before planting your bulbs from four to six inches deep.

HARDY PERENNIAL PHLOX

Among hardy herbaceous plants, none are more showy or more easily grown than the Phlox. They are very desirable planted in groups. Individual clumps throughout perennial beds make a very satisfactory display, while mass plantings of one color make the most effective showing.

12 different varieties without names, all different, regular value $3.50 for half price, $1.75 postpaid.

JAPANESE IRIS — IRIS KAEMPFERI

The Japanese Iris is without doubt the king of all Iris. If grown in a favorable location, the flowers will attain a size of from eight to twelve inches across and stand over four feet from the ground.

They should be planted in a location that has plenty of moisture but which is well drained, especially in Winter. Standing water during the Winter months will probably kill the plants. They should be planted in the Spring or early Fall and if properly cared for, will give excellent results the following season.

They start blooming the last of June at a time when cut flowers are most appreciated in the garden, and continue for about six weeks. When used for cut flowers they should be cut in the bud and allowed to open in water.
